TASTE TOMORROW

ALWAYS-ON CONSUMER RESEARCH

Taste Tomorrow Always-On Consumer Insights is the foundation of our innovation approach.

By engaging over 20,000 consumers and experts in 50+ countries—supported by global trend spotting, sensory research, and input from taste houses and universities—we uncover what's next in food.

These insights help bakers prepare for emerging trends and create products that keep them ahead of the market.

DOUGH CONDITIONERS

DOUGH CONDITIONERS

Puratos is committed to helping bakeries achieve superior quality while optimizing costs. Our dough conditioners range is designed to enhance dough performance, extend freshness, and deliver consistent results across every application.

INNOVATION INSPIRED BY NATURE

At Puratos, we know that enzymes are key for delivering all of the benefits bakers are seeking, including the clean(er) label trends.

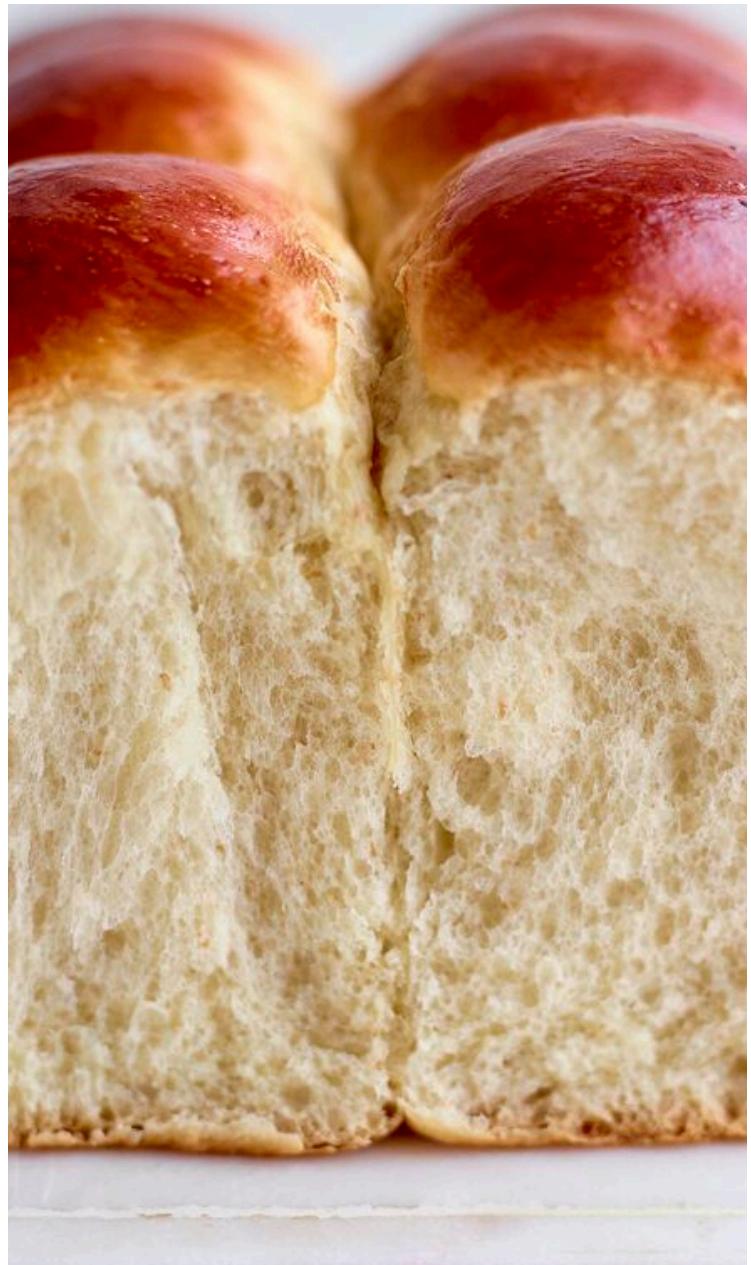

A whole new generation of enzymes has been discovered in some of the most amazing locations on Earth, leading to innovative products and texture functionalities such as short bite, softness and many more.

CONSUMER INSIGHTS

According to our 2025 Taste Tomorrow consumer data, freshness is the 3rd most important property when buying bread after price and taste.

FRESHNESS + COST SAVINGS

Intens Fresh 3-30 Premium is the next generation of freshness enzymes designed to help bakeries achieve superior softness, extended freshness, and improved resiliency.

For breads with over 5% sugar, it also allows you to reduce sugar and yeast at the bowl. This means lower ingredient costs without compromising quality or performance.

PURATOS MAKES SOURDOUGH SIMPLE

Bread is evolving ... it's no longer an automatic grocery cart staple. Research shows that retail sales of packaged sandwich bread have declined -5% while sourdough is up more than 25%, offering evidence that consumers are gravitating toward flavorful baked goods with clean labels and gut-health benefits.

72%

of consumers think sourdough adds to the tastiness of bread

51%

of consumers consume sourdough bread daily

Our sourdough solutions are pre-fermented and deactivated so they're ready-to-use, complete with the natural fermentation, complex and diverse flavor, and simple ingredient list consumers want without the production hassle.

- Consistency at scale for any production
- Clean-label formulations with no artificial preservatives or added sugars
- The ability to blend products to create endless flavor possibilities

CHOCOLATE & COMPOUND

INDULGENCE WITHOUT COMPROMISE

Puratos offers a complete range of chocolate and compound solutions that deliver indulgence without compromise.

Designed for exceptional taste, clean-label appeal, and cost efficiency, our products help bakers achieve consistent results across all applications.

CACAO-TRACE PROGRAM

Through our Cacao-Trace program, we ensure sustainable sourcing that rewards farmers and enhances cocoa flavor from bean to finished product.

Great Taste
Doing Good

For every pound of Cacao-Trace chocolate we sell, we collect 5 cents. We then send it back 100% to cocoa farmers either in cash directly to the farmers, or through community projects. \(>\)
